DIFFERENT FACTIONS ON THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION

Comments from the Barbee and Phelps Wings of Democratic Party and Republicans

After an election of any kind it is althe wherefores from the various factions connected with the contest. As is well known, there were three principal eleper county the Barboe and the Pheips vious of the Democratic party and the

The Joplin Glo' e represents the Barbee wing of the Democratic party, and that paper sizes up the result as follows:

"The cl ction is over. The republicans have won. They did it because they were assisted by the corrupt sulroad lobby and its kings who succeeded in leading most of the democrats in Uarthup over into the republican camp. It s much more a victory for Bill Phelos than it is for the republican party, but even for him it is the traitor's victory. The result is a rebuke to those who be lieve it wrong to corrupt legislatures, buy votes and betray the peo; le It is a rebuies to those who believe that faithof officials should be rewarded. It is a rebuse to those who believe that truth hould triumph over faisehood and that right drould rebuke wrong.

"The Globe proved every charge made is the republican organs against the recard of any of the democratic candicat's to be utterly faint, proved it by records and evidence that could not be disputed. The Globe proved by the records and indisputable evidence that every charge it made against the regulations was strictly true. Having one what was right. The Globe has othing to regret, no apologies to offer, honor of this district The Globe regions the result a result that was binined by the use of money and the muchabilions of a party traiter and his Bill Pholps, Tom Hackney, John Haliburton, Bea Thomas, Judge Perkies, Cor Reaca and Al Thomas are the men who won the victory yesterday for the republicans.

This is a highly creditable thing for these men.

Tom Hackney supported the republian ticket while holding the office of representative, to which he was elected by democrats.

Judge Perkins supported the republican ticket while holding the office of circuit judge, to which he was elected by democrats.

Bon Thomas supported the republican ticket while holding the office of state senator, to which he was elected by democrats. He was also chairman of the democratic congressional committee of this district.

Cor Roach supported the republican ticket while he was running what he alleged was a democratic paper.

This is a levely list of party traitors. Their names will be borne in mind outil the clods fall on their c flins.
